Scott Addison has been the Senior Pastor at Freedom of Worship Church (FOWC) since 2022. He has over two decades of pastoral experience, faithfully serving in ministry, counseling, and building meaningful relationships. Pastor Scott is a passionate shepherd with a heart for God's people. Beyond the local church, Pastor Scott's ministry extends globally. He has participated in missions work in Mexico, Honduras, Africa, and throughout the United States, embodying the Great Commission by spreading the Gospel and serving communities in need. He and his wife, Ashley, have two sons, Carter and Lucas. He is passionate about fostering programs that build up families, create opportunities for all ages, and encourage individuals to step into their purpose in Christ!

David Rose is married to Wendi and together they have two children, Ariel and Brayden. He is a devoted grandfather, lovingly known as Pop Pop, to his grandchildren, Parker and Nash. David began his pastoral journey as a youth pastor at East Stone Methodist and has been serving as the pastor of Derby Community Church and Appalachia Church of Grace since 2012. Additionally, he has been a dedicated employee at Wallens Ridge State Prison since 1998.
